This letter serves as notification that John Doe enrolled in the 2-hour Truancy Prevention Class on January 1, 2021.

I am the course instructor and hold a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Florida. I have authored or co-authored educational materials which have reached tens of thousands of students. My writings have been acknowledged by, and received approval from, Federal and State Departments for use in court-required educational programs. Thousands of certificates verifying successful completion of programs I have written are widely accepted by most U.S. Court Judicial Districts.

I have worked in the non-profit sector for over a decade and have been a featured speaker at the National Department of Justice Offender Transition Conference and the AFCPE Military Conference. I have held positions on the board of directors of the Personal Finance Employee Education Foundation, National Financial Literacy Foundation, and the Florida Jump$tart Coalition. I am credentialed as a Certified Domestic Violence Specialist (CDVS-1), an Anger Management Specialist (CAMS-1), and a Certified Shoplifting and Theft Addiction Specialist (CSTAS). I am a member of the National Anger Management Association and the Association of Domestic Violence Intervention Programs, and a fellow member of The American Association of Anger Management Providers. I hold additional certifications from AFCPE, ICFE, NCHEC, U.S. Department of HUD, and the State of Michigan. I have active memberships with NADCP, NAADAC, and APPA.

If you require any further information regarding the participation of John Doe in the Truancy Prevention Class, please send an email to help@nlearning.org or call the number below.
